Have you ever felt like a fish out of water not knowing what to do when a patient that has special healthcare needs comes to your office? Do you wish you had some introductory training on best practices for making these visits successful? Working with those with special healthcare needs can come with added challenges until you learn the basics of what it takes to have a successful and positive experience for the patient, you and your TEAM. Walk away with a ground level understanding of how to make working with the special need population the best part of your day.

Learning Objectives:

- Ensuring a Positive Dental Visit with Behavioral Management Strategies
- Tailoring Dental Treatments for Special Needs Patients
- Considerations when Obtaining Consent for Dental Care
- Creating a Safe and Welcoming Environment: Best Practices for Dental Offices
- Working with Caregivers and Other Health Professionals
